BEHOCHATIC STATE CONVENTION. By order of the Democratic State Centre Committee, Wednesday, the 18th of January has been agreed apon as the time for the saembling at Nashville, of the Democracy of Temperate in convention, in order to appoin delegates to the national convention, to be holden at Charleston, for the nomination of a idential ticket, and to choose their elecnors for the State at large, and for the transact then of such other business as may be desired

The committee earnestly recommend th Democratic masses throughout the State to ake an active interest in the subject, in order to a full convention and an Impartial representation of the popular sentiment of th P. C. DUNNINGTON, Chairman of the Committee BEATH OF G. G. POINDENTER.

Our telegraphic intelligence this morn contains the melanchety unnouncement of the death of G. G. POINDEXTER, Esq., editor of the Nashville Union and American, in a sire remontre with Axxxx A. Haxx, Esq., editor of the Nashville News. The dispatch states that the difficulty which produced this fata meeting grew out of an editorial controvers of which we are ignorant at this writing. ustification of seased and deplorable a resu the controversy feading to its ought to have it volved sumething more than mere political dif ference or asperity, and we can but add our true that an event which has brought to th grave a young, able, generous and rising maand has stained with blood the bands of grav-haired veteran of the prefession, h something more barsh and irreconcilable tha an ordinary newspaper controversy to extens

Mr. Poindexter was an elector on the Dem eratic ticket in the last Presidential election for the Nashville district, and sequitted him self with signal setisfaction to his part friends. He was, after the inauguration Mr. Buchanan, appointed by the lament Brown, Postmaster-General, to a confidentia position in the postoffice department, which po action he held for about a year, when he purchaed an interest in the Union and American, and second to Nashville. He has, since that pe riod been the netive principal editor of th Union and American, where he has provhimself to be a most able, fearless, gracefor and vigorous writer, and upbelder of the prin

As a friend and companion he was the very cast a gloom over this town; and in London a painful sensation was experienced on the distressing occurrence becoming known there. It was not hard to make the new government, which is auxious to do right and he right with all nations, pay for the crimes of its snemy; but such wrongs to our citizens could not be passed over, and the Santana cabine is trying to settle if the best way it can. At the best, it is no very easy affair, with a naked and hungry army six months in arrears clamoring for relief. How it will all end no one can foresee; but the Dominicans say that they can get a lean on their mines whenever they have a good commercial treaty with the Unihave a good commercial trenty, with the United States.
